SNAP SHOTS AT HOME NEWS.

"So, ho," he cried as he passed the stage.
The professional villain was at his post.
"The fellow that murders his wife nowadays, Don't have any work to give me."
"Our business of snatching and smothering is gone."
"Fate has a new scheme to do for us."
"He lets his wife eat all the grapes she can hold And then trusts to appendicitis."

AT LARGE AGAIN.

Four Shawnee County Offenders Released From the Penitentiary This Week.

The terms of four prisoners in the state penitentiary from Topeka expired this week and the offenders will soon be back in town a nuisance to the officers and a menace to society. They are Della May, Dick Wales, William Weston and Perry Thompson.

Della May is the colored woman who was sentenced for two years for attempting to kill Sergeant Steele. She had a revolver squarely at him but missed, one night at the corner of Third and Quincy streets. She is the woman who used to mix hard cider with snuff, which combination produced maniacal drunkenness, causing her to froth at the mouth, fight, yell and the spree always ended in hysterics. She was in many respects the worst female the police ever had to handle.

Dick Wales stole a watch out of a young man's pocket, and was sentenced for larceny. He was a tin-burn sport from St. Joe, and ran a gambling house in Topeka for a time.

Perry Thompson, forged ex-Sheriff Wilkinson's name to a small check over two years ago, and got a bill of groceries with it at Riordan's store in North Topeka.

William Weston is colored. He with a female accomplice, entered a room near Fifth and Madison streets, and stole $40. He was sentenced for grand larceny.

Among the other prisoners whom Governor Lewelling has formally released by reason of their terms having expired, are:

A. C. Blake, Edwards county, sentenced for attempted robbery; J. L. Hudson, Harvey, theft; George Avington, Finney; Frank Nelson, Cherokee; Isaac Taylor, Coffey; Frank Wilson, Miami; Gus Newman, Johnson; Frank Thompson, Cherokee; Oliver Van Camp, Wilson; James Owens, Montgomery; David Ben Bond, Labette; Jacob Scott, Johnson, and Joe King, Butler, all for grand larceny; Elder Fair, Harper, burglary and larceny; L.
P. Thompson, Sedgewick, obtaining money under false pretenses; John Murphy and Thomas Hayes, Riley, larceny; W. D.
Roe, rape.

MAJ. MORRILL MOVES.

He Reuts a Suit of Rooms in the Columbian Building.

Governor-elect Morrill is determined not to allow the hungry crowd of office-seekers to prevent his answering his heavy correspondence and he has secured a suit of rooms for office work in the Columbian building.

Governor Morrill, Secretary Bristow and several clerks are already at work in the new rooms and will be there most of the time until after the inauguration.

CIVIC FEDERATION.

Chicago's Organization Getting Ready for the Spring Campaign.

CHICAGO, Dec. 13.—Public interest in good city government is an issue which the Civic Federation proposes to present before the voters of Chicago at an early date, in anticipation of the municipal election next April. At a meeting of the committee on municipal agitation of the federation a circular letter was addressed to a large number of clubs, such as the Union League, Chicago, Commercial, Iroquois, Wabunsee, Marquette, Real Estate board and fifty other organized bodies, inviting them to send representatives to a conference Dec. 19 at the Masonic Temple.

"This nonpartisan campaign," said Mr.
A. F. Hatch, a member of the committee, "is going to begin in a very few days, and through the co-operation of the ward organizations of the civic federation, it will be carried on all over the city. It is the aim of the federation to enlist the interest and aid of all that class of citizens which has hitherto kept away from the caucuses and primaries and permitted the professional ward politicians to control them as they pleased.
The committee expects to hold between 200 and 300 meetings before the spring election."

JUST LIKE A BIRD.

Prof. Langley's New Flying Machine Spread Its Wings Over the Water.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Prof. Langley's new aeroplane flew yesterday afternoon.

The great inanimate bird spread its white wings over the waters of an obscure and land-locked bay thirty miles from the capital. It was tried at the mouth of Chupawauk creek. The sight was impressive. Like a monstrous swan it jumped into the air in the face of a perceptible breeze, and after sailing gracefully for some distance, alighted upon the surface of the water. It is made to float. Quickly followed by the rowboat in attendance the apparatus was brought back and safely housed.

The material in it is aluminum, and the shape like that of a porpoise. The wings inclined upward at a slight angle, the machine being sustained much as a kite is held in mid-air. In place of string and wind are two swiftly revolving screws. The result of Secretary Langley's experiments on motors is that a very lightly constructed steam engine is preferable to a storage battery for aerial navigation.

BRAND THE CLAIM FALSE.

World's Fair Officials Expose Pretender To An Award.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 13.—One of the odd results of the World's fair is the claim now made to awards by some who were not even exhibitors. Officials of the Exposition have not as yet taken final action in the matter, believing the quick wit of the people will detect the spurious claims. But to the case of a New York baking powder, that has been widely advertising an award, the attention of the Chief of Awards for Agriculture has been directed. He brand the claim of this pretender as false, declaring "Neither the records of this department, nor the official catalogue of the World's Columbian Exposition, show that this New York Company was an exhibitor; consequently it could not receive an award at the World's fair."

Those who fairly won their honors at the fair seem disposed to treat this fraud as any other fraud should be treated.
The Price Baking Powder Company, of Chicago, having received the highest award, say they are convinced their claims, and those of all other holders of rightful honors, will be fully vindicated by the public.

PEACE UNION'S REQUEST.

It Asks Germany to Give French Alsace-Lorraine to France.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—The universal peace union has forwarded to the emperor of Germany a petition urging his consideration of the proposition that Alsace-Lorraine, whose occupants speak French.

The action of the union is based on the publication of the proposition in an international magazine this month and the petition to the emperor recites that the measure will result in the permanent reconciliation of France and Germany.

President Alfred H. Love of Philadelphia has requested all the peace societies here and abroad to testify their sympathy with the object in view by addressing similar petitions to the emperor.

A WAY TO STOP FIGHTING.

Full Amnesty to all Rebels in Brazil will Alone Do It.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—A special to the World from Montevideo says: The rebels now number over nine thousand.
They have left the mountains, being tired of waiting for amnesty. It is reported that a battle was fought yesterday at Santa Marta.

A special to a morning paper from Buenos Ayres says General Hecar has told President Peixoto that Gov. Castilho of Rio Grande de Sul did not resign, and that he intends to fight the rebels to the end. He also says that the only way to end the trouble in Rio Grande would be to grant full amnesty to all who have engaged in revolutionary uprising in the past in every state of the republic.

HOLMAN WRITING A BOOK.

The Watchdog of the Treasury Will Tell About His Services.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 13.—Another famous statesman from Indiana, Mr. Holman, is going into literature. He is already at work writing his reminiscences of public service, and the title of his book will be "Thirty Years in Congress."

Judge Holman has actually served thirty years in the house, or will have served that long when the present congress comes to an end.

CHILD IN BOILING WATER.

A Drunk Man Drops His Nephew Into a Kettle at a Bar Killing.

EVANSVILLE, Ind., Dec. 13.—Willie Ott, six years old, went to a hog killing, at his uncle's, near West Franklin, today.
Mr. Ott, the uncle, was drunk, and held Willie over a kettle of boiling water, and accidentally dropping him he was scalded to death.

There will be a social at the Highland Park school house tomorrow evening.
The proceeds to be used for charity.
Come out and help a good cause. All are invited. Cars leave Ninth and Quincy at 7:45 p. m.
